WANDERLUSTERS TAKE TRIPS.

Three Parties, Numbering Eightyfive, Tramp Through Virginia.

Eighty-five Wanderiusters of Washington celebrated Washington's Birthday with a sight-seeing tour-afoot and by rail-in Virginia. The hikers were led by Miss Monah Hord.

Three parties of pedestrians were out to make the trip, The first party, numbering about forty, left Washington for Mt. Vernon at 8:20 o'clock, and the grounds being opened an hour earlier than usual for their benefit, they walked through the estate until a late hour in the morning. Electric cars were taken to Snowden, where a second party of hikers, led by Walter W. Paige, was joined.

The principal hike was from Snowden to Riverside, by way of Fort Hunt. The THE GREEK IDEAL OF BEAUTY.

The hikers spent about two hours at the fort, viewing the works and preparing their itunch. A third party of hikers joined the group at Fort Hunt and the walk to Riverside was begun. Electric cars were taken from Riverside for Washington about 5 o'clock.

Gather at Hotel Raleigh and Hone Washington's Memory.

About 200 Californians and others from the Golden West assembled in the oak room of the Hotel Raieigh Tuesday night as the guests of the California Society in celebration of Washington's Birthday.

Representative Denver S. Church, of California, delivered a short talk on national preparedness. Miss Mary Van Fossen gave a recitation, and Miss Ethei Nugent, of 14 S street northwest, sang a solo to an accompaniment played by Miss Gertrude Brooks, of 2010 F street northwest. Miss Annie Martin spoke on the west. Miss Annie Martin spoke on the Susan B. Anthony amendment.

Among those present were Senators Phelan and Poindexter, Representatives Smith, of Idaho, and Elston, of California, and United States Commissioner of Immigration Caminetti.

This was a conversation at a little diner party in the main restaurant of the Hotel Majestic. At one end of the table sat a famous woman artist, a young married woman whose beauty is something quite beyond question, and a man about town, who has made and lost sev-
